

Verbal communication

- The speaker correctly and appropriately modulates the tone of voice.
- The expression flows naturally and correctly.
- The correct and appropriate vocabulary is used.
- The speaker keeps the attention of the spectators.

/10Non-verbal communication

- The speaker uses appropriate body language, correct hand movements, etc. that complements the oral presentation.
- Eye contact with the audience is almost permanent and is distributed throughout the audience.
- The speaker stands straight, moves naturally and does not turn his back on the audience.

/10Use of visual and/or technological resources

- The slides are visual and eye-catching.
- The slides contain the relevant information, and the order is clear.
- The speaker makes use of visual and/or technological resources to enrich the presentation.

/10Content

- The speaker demonstrates mastery of the content.
- The speaker understands what they say and transmits the contents to the rest of their classmates.
- The speaker uses a motivated introduction, a well-organized body, and a strong conclusion.
- The speaker adjusts to their time.

/10

What specific aspects did you particularly like? What has stood out?	What aspects could be improved? How would you improve them?